It was untypical

(Verse 1)

When we wake up in the morning

And let the coffee brew

We read the newspaper

After our showers

Never any conversating

And hardly even a sound

Before we're out the door

As the clock passes time away

(Chorus)

It was untypical

The way you moved me

The way you shook me

The way you grooved me

It was untypical

(Verse 2)

When we're home in the evening

And nothing to tend to

We watch the television

We stare at the tube

Zitcooms not much of anything

No excitment to be found

Flip through the stations more

As the clock passes time away

(Repeat Chorus)

(Verse 3)

At night there's no romancing

And the words they are few

We don't hold each other

Yet are never hurt

Between us there's no heartbreaking

Never even make a sound

Same as the night before

As the clock passes time away

(Repeat Chorus)

(Verse 4)

Twenty fifth year annaversary

And will have grand kids soon

Not in each others vision

Though our sight is good

Brief moment of fantasizing

No romance is ever found

Flip through the stations more

As the clock passes time away
